

International Colloquium

Reframing Prostitution: From Discourse to Description, from Moralisation to Normalisation?

Ghent | 27 March 2014

Programme

Organisers:
Nina Peršak
Gert Vermeulen

Venue:
Faculty of Law
Ghent University

Institute for International Research on Criminal Policy
Ghent University

International Colloquium

Rethinking Prostitution: From Discourse to Description, from Moralisation to Normalisation?

(Faculty of Law, Ghent University, 27 March 2014)

Programme

10.15 – 10.30 Arrival, tea and coffee

10.30 – 10.45 Welcome address

Session I: Prostitution in action: past and present

Chair: Prof. dr. Gert Vermeulen

10.45 – 11.20 Prostitution in world cities from the seventeenth century to the present

Magaly Rodríguez García (Free University of Brussels (VUB-ULB))

11.20 – 11.55 Europe's legal red-light districts: comparing different models and distilling best practices

Ron Weitzer (The George Washington University, USA)

11.55 – 12.30 Prostitution and its relations with informal economies

Dominique Boels (Ghent University)

Lunch (12.30 – 13.00)

Session II: Construction of prostitution as a social problem

Chair: Prof. dr. Nina Peršak

13.00 – 13.35 Prostitution: the social construction of a (problematic) group

Katrien Symons (Ghent University) and Kristien Gillis (University of Antwerp)

13.35 – 14.10 Regulating street prostitution as public nuisance in the 'culture of consumption': a comparative analysis between Birmingham, Brussels and Milan

Anna Di Ronco (Ghent University)

14.10 – 14.45 Analysing the use of the trafficking victim archetype by Brazil and the Iberian countries

Julie Lima de Pérez (Ghent University)

Tea and coffee break (14.45 – 15.00)

Session III: Prostitution policies beyond moralism

Chair: Prof. dr. Gert Vermeulen

15.00 – 15.35 The framing of prostitution as victimhood and violence for criminalisation purposes

Nina Peršak (Ghent University)

15.35 – 16.10 To punish or not to punish: what works in the regulation of the prostitution market?

Alexis Aronowitz (Utrecht University, NL)

16.10 – 16.45 Private-public cooperation in the prostitution sector through self-regulation and certification and the focusing of law enforcement efforts on providers and users of non-certified services?

Gert Vermeulen (Ghent University)

16.45 – 17.20 Sex outside the norm and its representation in the public debate: who's talking?

Alexander Witpas (Flemish Association for Sexology (VVS))

Closing of the colloquium (17.20 – 17.45)

Organisation: Prof. Nina Peršak and Prof. Gert Vermeulen

Venue: Faculty Council Room (Facultaire Raadzaal), Faculty of Law, Ghent

Should you wish to attend the colloquium, please email your request to Stijn.VanDaele@UGent.be until 10 March. Although attendance is free, prior registration is required. Places are limited.

